TODAY AT TRINITY

- This is the first Sunday of Lent and today we begin a series of messages designed to help you slow down the pace of life. Each Sunday during Lent the messages will focus on a "picture" of Jesus Christ that will deepen your thoughts about Jesus who comes to be the center of your life. This morning you will hear and see and touch and taste and smell a picture of our Savior as the bread of life.
- Joel Ysselstein will give a testimony of his faith in Jesus as his Savior this morning, and profess his desire to offer his life wholly in service to his Lord.
- This morning we celebrate the Lord's Supper as we enter the season of Lent. We confess our sins, and receive the bread of life as a gift from his hand. Jesus himself invites you to the table, and offers the bread and cup to us with the promise that we share in his death and resurrection. Jesus is our life, and we celebrate the new life we have in him.
- 8:45 AM- Worship Pray-ers
9:30 AM- Worship Service
10:45 AM- Sunday School

As we have financially supported Eric and Shelly Dirksen they desire to also feel relationships with other believers in this journey. We invite you to sign up for a month of 2010 at the Opportunities Table. During the month that you choose you and your family can be creative in contact the Dirksens. It can be an email, card, prayers, pictures, box of goodies, or anything you enjoy. They would love to hear about you, how God is working in your life or events of your family as well as encouragement from them.

You may put your name and time on the One Body One Hope sheet in the fellowship hall or let Mary De Groot or Walt Blom know when you are coming.
