TODAY AT TRINITY

- This weekend our nation seeks to remember those who gave their lives in protecting the freedom we enjoy. But what happens when a nation no longer has the desire to remember who God is? The message this morning reminds us that God created us with a strong desire to never forget those we love. We are created in the image of the Father. Backsliding means to turn away from God. What happens to those who lose their faith? The message this evening is based on Romans 5:1-11 and explores the questions we have about backsliding believers.

FROM THE COUNCIL

- Profession of Faith: Liliana De Lachica has given a testimony of her faith in Jesus as her Savior, and wants to publicly profess her desire to give her life in service to Christ as her Lord and King. We rejoice in the gift of faith the Holy Spirit has given to Lilly, and pray that her faith will serve as a witness to God's amazing grace.
