TODAY AT TRINITY

- This morning God's Word reminds us that nothing in life will ever matter unless we love God with a love that holds nothing back. Why does it always seem so easy to fill our lives with little treasures and then give God whatever is left over?
- This evening the words of Titus 3:3-8 remind us that we live in the last days, and we live each day having the hope of eternal life. But the routine of ordinary life can dull our hearts, and make us forget the very purpose of living. We are called to holy living because meeting with the Lord is in the very near future.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

- Today, Jeff & Sarah Vollink will present their daughter, Erica Faye, before the Lord to receive the promises God gives to believing parents and their children in the sacrament of baptism. In this sacrament God reminds all of us as members of the body of Christ that we are called to nurture the faith of each child. Does your child have a desire to celebrate the Lord's Supper? Nurture that desire and encourage them to confess their faith in Jesus as Savior and Lord.

FROM THE COUNCIL
